1. Met [REDACTED] who was in Mr. Wolf's office. [REDACTED] is entering on duty today. Checked with Personnel and [REDACTED] and learned that [REDACTED] plans to use [REDACTED] to work with the Psychological Strategy Board. Gerry said that he had known [REDACTED] since OSS days and thought that he was one of the bright, promising young men who should be watched very closely and brought along. Passed this information on to Mr. Wolf at his request.

5. Attended DD/A Staff Meeting at which the principal point discussed was the working relationship of the central administrative offices with DD/P principal staffs and area divisions. It was agreed that each central administrative office would designate one or more points of contact for routine matters and a single point of contact for highly sensitive matters. [REDACTED] agreed to provide similar points of contact in the area divisions and principal DD/P staffs.
